Twilight's embrace where hearts collide
We stand at a crossroad, with tears we hide Aching whispers fill the air as time drifts by Give me one more night before we say goodbye.

Chorus

Kiss me goodnight
Let our souls intertwine
Promise me forever one last time
Tell me you love me
With all your might
Before you depart before you leave my life

Tell me you love me (2x) kiss me goodnight[2x]

Verse 2

The stars are witnesses to our lives final dance Once inseparable now has turned to no romance
Let us savour these echoes of passions flame
Before fate in ravel before it lays it down to blame

Kiss me goodnight
Let our souls intertwine
Promise me forever one last time
Tell me you love me
With all your might
Before you depart before you leave my life

Hold me close darling
As we face the night
Through the paths we take
Tonight I'll hold you tight
Whisper hopes of future even though we know it's not right
Give me one more night
Even if it's pretend for the night
